Introduction:

Kunjapuri Devi Temple is a renowned Temple of High Religious Importance to Pilgrims of Hindu Religion. The Holy Shrine is Located at an altitudinal Height of 1,676 Meters above the sea level. The Temple is one of the 52 Shakti peeths in Uttarakhand and is a place where the chest of the Burnt Sati fell down. Kunjapuri Devi Temple offers Panoramic views of snow laden mountains such as Gangotri, Banderpooch, Swarga Rohini and chaukhamba.

Kunjapuri Devi Temple receives Devotees from far flung place During Dusehra and Navratri festival when a grand celebration of organized at the temple. Kunjapuri Devi temple completes the triangle of three siddha peeths that lie on the top of the mountains in the Tehri Garhwal district. Kunja Puri- Chandrabadni and Surkanda Devi make the triangle of the siddha peeths.

There are around 80 steep steps ought to be climbed to reach the main shrine of Kunjapuri Devi temple from the main road, Kunjapuri Devi temple is located atop the Hill and Has a beautiful Temple complex.

Need Assessment:

People from far flung areas used to visit at Kunjapuri temple daily and crowd is seen during Dusehra and Navratri festival. Besides that approx 1 lakh pilgrimages from all over the country visit Kunja Puri Temple round the year. For last few years the population of monkeys at the campus of the temple increasing day by day. Monkeys attack the villagers and pilgrimages who visit temple to worship of Goddess. They are also snatching articles and children and old aged person were getting injured by the fear/attack of these monkeys. To avoid such incidents, SEWA-THDC got chain link fencing work both side of temple's stairs.
